Damage to the extent of many thousands of dollars was done in Fayette county and Central Kentucky by a killing frost which fell Tuesday night. It is thought that gardens in that section are ruined, while all fruits are injured, if not killed. Wheat was killed while tussling.

Everett Back and wife, of Canabel City, passed through here Monday on their way to Lexington, Frankfort and other points to visit relatives and friends. They will return in about ten days when Mr. Back will resume his position as conductor on the O. & K. passenger train.

The K. L. & V. bridge across the Kentucky river at the mouth of Pan Bowl branch was completed last week and cars are now running over it. The company has been particularly unfortunate with this bridge, as this is the third bridge they have built at that place.

Jake T. Patrick, of Salsersville, is in Washington this week. We suppose he is hunting a piece of pie for some of his friends, although he denies it. He has, however, proposed Capt. Jeff Prather, of Salsersville, as a suitable man for the next Governor of Kentucky.

The two State Normal schools, provided for by the last Legislature, have been located by the Commissioners selected for that purpose—one at Richmond and the other at Bowling Green. Richmond and Madison county donated the old Central University buildings and grounds to the State on condition that the Eastern Normal School should be located there. The buildings and grounds are valued at $150,000.

Services were held in the new Christian church last Sunday and Rev. W. J. Dodge delivered a most interesting sermon to a good-sized congregation. The committee held a business meeting in the afternoon and arrangements were made for the dedication of the edifice, which will be held on Sunday, June 17th. Jackson has every reason to be proud of this new structure, as it is one of the most beautiful buildings in town, and we should all co-operate in making the dedication a noteworthy event. Every effort is being made to have the building complete by that time and with pleasant weather it should prove an interesting ceremony.

A Popular Young Lady.

Miss Florence M. Strong, of Athol, is a candidate for the Lexington Herald's trip to Atlantic City. She is second in the contest, with a fair prospect to win. All the Herald subscribers in this section should help her by clipping their coupons and sending them as directed in the paper, and show their pride in this young lady by giving her a handsome majority over her other opponents. An excellent picture of her appeared in last Sunday's Herald.

After the Dehorner.

The conviction of Daniel Boone Lynch last week for defacing the brands on a number of ties belonging to the Ohio Valley Tie Co. is the result of a strenuous effort on the part of C. L. Taggart, manager for the company, to put a stop to such business. The company has suffered considerable loss and annoyance at the hands of "dehorner." A standing reward of $100 for evidence which will lead to the conviction of such offenders is being offered to put a quietus to them. The party furnishing the evidence against Lynch received $100 from the company—Irvine Herald.

Perry County's Sheriff Shot.
A report from Hazard says that Mason Engle shot Sheriff M. C. Eversole Sunday night. Eversole had two warrants for Engle. He arrested him Sunday and it was agreed that the prisoner could remain in his home over night, the Sheriff to be on guard, and the pair would go to Hazard Monday. Shortly after they had retired for the night the Sheriff got up to get a drink of water. His movements awakened Engle, who remembered that there was a shotgun under the bed. He reached for it, took aim and fired, the charge taking effect in the Sheriff's left breast and inflicting probably a fatal wound.

Her funeral was conducted at the Presbyterian church Monday by Rev. W. H. Setzer, after which here remains were buried in the Combs graveyard by the side of her father, who died in 1888.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rader take this method of thanking their friends for the many kindnesses shown them during the illness of their daughter, Miss Eddie B. Cardwell.

father, Arter McDaniel, last Saturday.

Mrs. Cinda Johnson, of Wharf, visited her mother, Mrs. Nancy Lewis, Sunday.

Miss Sillar Johnson, of Canoe, visited her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Deaton, Saturday.

John B. Lewis was visiting his daughter, Miss Mary Lewis, at Jackson last Wednesday.

Miss Tymanda Deaton, of Miller Branch, was the guest of Mrs. Laura York, of Buckhorn, Saturday.

Miss Netta Deaton, of Miller Branch, is visiting friends at Buckhorn, where she attended school last winter.

Robin Burton had his arm broken and shoulder dislocated by a log rolling over him while at work on his farm last Monday.

Miss Nannie Deaton, the accomplished daughter of Robert and Elizabeth Deaton, of Long creek, was the guest of her aunt, Nancy Lewis, Sunday.

Millard Reynolds, of Canoe, has planted 22 acres in corn and claims to be the first one to finish planting corn at Canoe. The girl who wishes an early, industrious farmer for a husband would do well to file a claim for the right of possession.

Higher McIntosh, of Buffalo, Owsley county, and Miss Martha Wooten, of Buckhorn, eloped last Friday night, and on Saturday afternoon William Wooten, in company with a constable and a deputy sheriff, was on Long's Creek in search of the runaways, but their whereabouts were not ascertained.

At a tiger near the head of the right hand fork of the Riley fork of Long creek a number of men were assembled to enjoy themselves Sunday. During the day a difficulty occurred between Ned Baker and Robert Turner. Several pistols were drawn. Baker received some slight wounds with a knife. The row was quite an ugly affair. It is hoped that the tiger will be short lived.

An old adage is, the love of money is the root of all evil. This adage might be used to a degree of facts in regard to the actions of business on the head of the right hand fork of the Riley fork of Longs Creek. It is said that a pit tiger strayed from Owsley county and located in a small den just across the Owsley county line on the Breathitt side. Just what the future will be is not known, but a line of $100, compensated by 60 days boarding at Jackson's public tavern, would be a small lesson of experience.
